

Earlier Green Web Publications

Below are some Green Web publications which were written earlier, but which only recently have been made available on the internet.

- Pulpwood Forestry in Nova Scotia – a presentation to a public hearing in Halifax of the Nova Scotia Royal Commission on Forestry, April 1983. (Green Web Bulletin # 10)
- The Green Movement and Our Place In It – a position statement on the green movement by the North Shore Environmental Web, March 1988.
- Forestry Herbicide Use: A Hazard to Our Environment - originally produced by the North Shore Environmental Web, now reproduced by the Green Web. Early summer 1988. (Green Web Bulletin #15)
- More than Boat Harbour: Various Environmental Questions Pertaining to Scott Paper and Canso Chemicals – a leaflet prepared by the NSEW for a community meeting on the pollution being dumped into Boat Harbour, September 1988.
- Blueberry Spraying: A Chemical Horror Story – a discussion of problems associated with lowbush blueberry spraying, November 1988. (Green Web Bulletin # 1)
- Stop spraying blueberries – a letter to the editor to the Pictou Advocate, January 25, 1989.
- Christmas Tree Cultivation: Open Season On Pesticides – a discussion of problems associated with spraying of Christmas trees, March 1989. (Green Web Bulletin # 3)
- Green Marginality in Canada – June 1989. A paper presented at the 1989 Learned Societies Conference, Laval University, Quebec City, at the session "The Red-Green Movement in Canada." (Green Web Bulletin # 4)
- Socialist Biocentrism – What is it? - Notes for a workshop at the Vermont deep ecology conference, September 2-4, 1989. (Green Web Bulletin # 5)
- Deck the Halls with Boughs of... Poison? Whats on the family Christmas tree? Probably more than needles, by David Orton. Published in Soundings, New Maritimes, November/December 1989.
- Problems Facing the Green Movement in Canada and Nova Scotia – comments by David Orton, responding to the visit of the Swedish Green M.P. Per Gahrton to Nova Scotia, January 1990. (Green Web Bulletin # 17)
- Christmas Tree Farms and Pesticides – article on Christmas tree spraying published in The Glacial Erratic, Vol. 2 No. 1, Spring 1990.

- The Greens – An Introduction – an early outline of the problems of the Green movement in Canada and elsewhere, New Maritimes, May/June 1990.
- Informed Consent or Informed Rejection of Pesticide Use – a concept for environmental action against forest spraying, Philosophy and Social Action, India, Vol. 16, No. 4, Oct.-Dec. 1990. (Green Web Bulletin # 20)
- Pesticides: Points of Contention – by D. Orton, January 1991, published in InforMed, a journal of The Medical Society of Nova Scotia.
- Guide to Green Publications – a “primer” about the green movement, February 1991. ((Green Web Bulletin #19)
- Environmentalism: More Than Recycling – a letter to the editor to New Maritimes, March/April 1991.
- Rio Reflections and Ethical considerations – report of participation at the Global Forum, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in June 1992. (Green Web Bulletin # 33)
- Forest Treaty – Treaty negotiated by NGOs at the Global Forum in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, June 1992. (Green Web Bulletin # 32)
- Nova Scotia’s Forests under Assault – by the Coalition for Alternatives to Pesticides and the Green Web, September 1992.
- No to Plantation Forestry – letter by D. Orton, published in Wilderness Alberta Vol. 22 No. 4, December 1992.
- Ecofeminism: Personal Reflections - article by David Orton, submitted to the Australian movement publication, formerly called The Deep Ecologist, December 6, 1992.
- Development not always positive or desirable – a letter to the editor to the Truro Daily News, December 23, 1992.
- Fighting Forest Spraying in Nova Scotia - article by D. Orton, Earth First! Journal December 1993.
- Struggling Against 'Sustainable Development': A Canadian Perspective, by D. Orton, January 1994. (Green Web Bulletin #41)
- Green Web Literature: A Bibliographic Essay – written by David Orton, for Capitalism, Nature, Socialism: A Journal of Socialist Ecology, February 18, 1994.
- Portsmouth-born Canadian activist reflects on life – article about a visit to his mother on her 90th birthday. The News (Portsmouth), November 25, 1994.

- Left Biocentrism – a 1,000-word entry in the Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature, 1st Edition, Volume 2: K-Z, pp. 1003-1005, 2005, Thoemmes Continuum, Bristol, England, ISBN 1 843711389.
-

To obtain any of the Green Web publications, write to us at:

Green Web, R.R. #3, Saltspings, Nova Scotia, Canada, BOK 1PO
E-mail us at: greenweb@ca.inter.net

Back to

The Green Web
A Taste of Green Web Writings and Left Biocentrism

http://home.ca.inter.net/~greenweb/Earlier_Publications.pdf
Last updated: September 12, 2012